

APPLICATION FOR A PERSONAL MONETARY GRANT

The overall aim of the Manx Stroke Foundation is to help and support people after stroke. Financial difficulties may prevent people from acquiring the assistance needed. Persons may apply for monetary grants in order to provide assistance that will improve the person's quality of life and/or aid independence.

Please refer to the Criteria for Monetary Grants document before completing this form

CRITERIA FOR MONETARY GRANTS

ELIGIBILITY:

Any Isle of Man based person who has had a stroke or is caring for someone who has had a stroke can apply for a grant.

All requests must be made in writing using our application form and grants cannot be provided retrospectively.

FUNDING WILL NOT BE PROVIDED FOR:

- Private medical treatment and private therapy
- Labour costs/structural alterations
- Nursing home fees other than respite
- Debts and rent arrears
- Items for which statutory funding is available
- Medical and rehabilitation equipment that can be provided by Manx Care

The Manx Stroke Foundation cannot accept responsibility for the ordering or the repairs, breakdown, servicing and maintenance of any items funded by this grant scheme or liability for any injury or damage caused in the use of the equipment.

HOW THE TRUSTEES ASSESS APPLICATIONS:

Each request is determined at the discretion of the Trustees on its own merits based on all the information supplied. The Trustees may not always grant the full amount requested and the Trustees also reserve the right to decline any requests. The Trustees decision will be final.

IF A GRANT REQUEST IS APPROVED:

The applicant or their representative will be informed of the outcome of the Trustees' decision in due course in writing by email or letter (as preferred).

The applicant or their representative then needs to ask the supplier to invoice the Manx Stroke Foundation for the approved grant amount and send the invoice to the following address:

The Manx Stroke Foundation, 80 Malew Street, Castletown, Isle of Man IM9 1LS or by email to admin@manxstrokefoundation.org

The Manx Stroke Foundation will then pay the supplier the approved Grant amount and the applicant pays the supplier any remainder (if applicable).
